Black History Month

February 8, 2021

Fabulous February Everyone!

Hope you are having a fantastic Black History Month. We had a virtually long semester of new learning platforms, new norms and learning remotely from home. Hopefully, you took care of yourself, achieved your goals and did well. Now it is time to go forth into the second semester and go out with a bang. We have tools (resources and information) in place for you (scholars and teachers alike) to be successful on our new and improved interactive OHS virtual library website <https://jeaninejoneslis.weebly.com/>.

Library Orientation:

Fantastically forging forward, Mandatory Library Orientation per Dr, Williams will take place in the month of February for all scholars. More information /schedule for English & ESL Teachers can be accessed below.

ISafe Update:

Kudos to all that followed admins directive for the ISafe Digital Citizenship course. Your proactiveness helped us get many of our scholars to completion. Unfortunately, only 62% of our student finished to completion. The good news is that after a feedback session I attended (with a team member of those in charge of the course), is that we may get another opportunity to get 100%. Keep in mind the Canvas course on Internet Safety and Digital Citizenship is mandated by the state for all our scholars to complete.

Class Virtual Visits, Videos, Story Time, Poetry Workshops, Sway Workshop, and other Workshops available. Schedule today. <https://jeaninejoneslis.weebly.com/schedule.html>

Use story time to engage your student's creative side. See Black History/American History stories here:
